Additional Charges

9. Publicize the opportunity for stipends to faculty, as well as discuss and select the faculty willing to facilitate book discussions or coordination of approved academic/cultural experiences (concerts, theater, etc.). This faculty should choose the appropriate book or cultural event, and lead the discussion. As a follow-up, the person should provide a summary report of the discussion that could be shared with the entire faculty, as a column in the Atlantic Cape Communicator and as an item on the IRC website. A copy of the summary must also be submitted the Vice President of Academic Affairs. Make certain faculty know of this opportunity to lead discussions. There should be a goal to have at least one book discussion each year. Conduct a poetry workshop during April, in conjunction with Poetry Month.
10. Distribute RFPs for Service Learning, Creative Content and Student Success projects, or multi-cultural events. Sponsor Faculty Forum for grant recipients to make presentations on their projects (to take place either as a part of the January Faculty Development Day or as a separate program in spring). By the end of May, make recommendations to the Vice President of Academic Affairs and area Deans for the disposition of proposals received for Service Learning and Creative Content projects. Faculty should be notified as to the status of their proposal by the end of June.
11. Recommend or solicit faculty projects worthy of funding. See the Vice President of Academic Affairs for available funding. Support faculty initiatives focusing on service learning, enhanced cultural diversity education and student retention and success. Review and Revise the IRC Proposal Application to address faculty interest and any new criteria.

Please note: The budget for this committee is managed by the Vice President of Academic Affairs who will provide funds for all approved faculty development activities.
